Rectory Office Hours

March 31, 2019 – Fourth Sunday of Lent

First Reading: Josiah 5:9a, 10-12

“Reproach of Egypt” may refer to circumcision. The people celebrate the Passover, here an older version that did not include the sacrifice of the lamb.

Second Reading: II Corinthians 5:17-21

Paul tells his readers that not only has God reconciled humanity to Himself, but He has also entrusted the reconciling mission of Christ to us.

Gospel: Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

This is perhaps Our Lord’s greatest parable. It illustrates several lessons, above all the forgiveness of the father for his younger son’s waywardness and his older son’s self-righteousness.

Reflection:

Paul says our relationship with God was restored, not through any work of ours, but through God’s initiative in Christ. It wasn’t just Jesus’ sacrificial death that accomplished our reconciliation, but his sacrificial life. Throughout his life he poured himself out for us in love. This was God’s doing and, if we accept it in faith, we are reconciled to God.

So we ask ourselves:

- As we reflect on our lives this Lent, what feels "old": a worn-out way of behaving?
- Have we noticed any signs of new life in those very areas?
