April 14, 2019 – Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

First Reading Isaiah 50:4-7

Here we have a direct reference in the Old Testament to the future sufferings of Jesus in the New. With God the Father as His help, Jesus does not “shield His face from buffets and spitting.”

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

The beautiful ancient hymn describing Jesus, which St. Paul quotes here, was composed independently of the Epistle. From her beginning, the Church has always recognized the humility practiced by the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity.

Gospel: Luke 22:14-23:56

Jesus' farewell speech at a meal opens St. Luke's passion narrative, followed by all those depictions of Jesus' suffering and the disciples' disloyalty at this crucial time. Meanwhile, Jesus continues to associate with sinners, even from the cross. His splendid vindication awaits.

Reflection:

Like Isaiah's servant, Jesus too has set his face like flint. Today he enters Jerusalem. God's faithful servant has set his face "like flint," to do what needed to be done for us. Because of Jesus' fidelity we have the grace to live faithful lives of service. We are willing to face challenges in a new setting, even though we have faced the same ones so many times before.

So we ask ourselves:

- What daily challenge do I face today in my attempt to live a faithful Christian life?
- What and who give me the strength to do that? For this strength give thanks.
